Boort Men's Shed Willing and Able

Members of the Boort Men's Shed have been hard at work completing a variety of interesting community projects. A real joy was the completion of a toy kitchenette for the pre-school children. It has proven to be a winner with the littlies. Restoration of some aged and weather beaten outdoor furniture for Boort District

Health was given a new lease on life and massaged to an exceptionally high standard. The Honour Board for Boort District School, built from scratch, came up a treat. In addition to their project work, the members have been cutting kindling and crushing cans as part of their recycling efforts.

Members of the Men's Shed would like to sincerely thank Barrie and Rosalie Evans for their generous support and assistance that they provided to the Men's Shed during a recent project. Their involvement has been significant and is greatly appreciated by all the members. They also take this opportunity to thank all the many community groups, local businesses and individuals for their on-going support and assistance. It is greatly appreciated.

Many members are also actively involved in community work outside the Men's Shed and they are to be complimented for their generosity and commitment. Coffee, scones and convivial conversation are going down well and provide a friendly backdrop that enhances the Men's Shed as a health and well-being centre. There are smiles a'plenty and much in the way of mutual support.

*The members are working on their projects and doing good Cutting and filling bags with loads of kindling wood
The outdoor furniture resplendent in form and finished in style
Looks a treat and is streets ahead by a country mile*

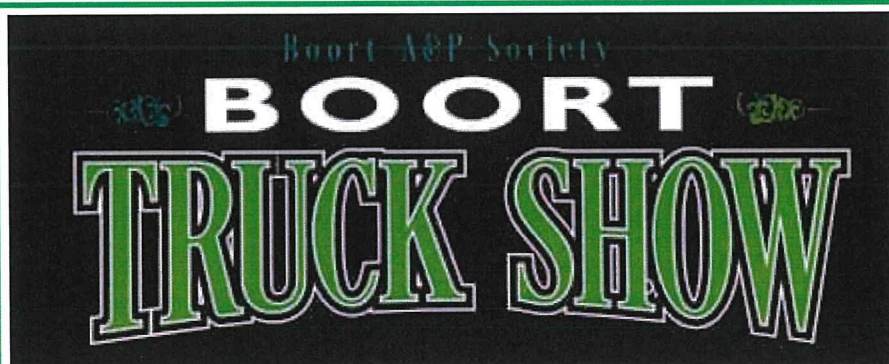

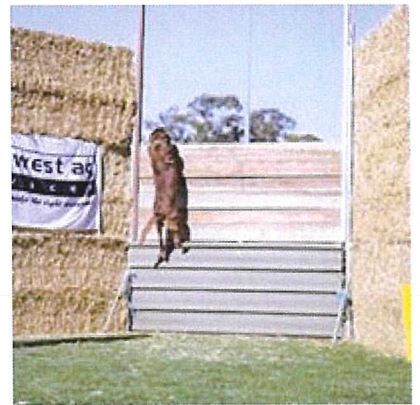

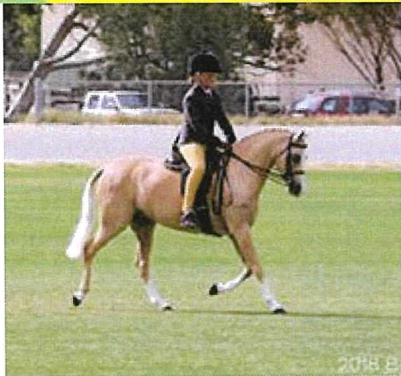

*The kinder kids now have a kitchenette for with to play
Built with loving care by the members during the day
And so an Honour Board for the School was done
Designed and crafted with skill in spades that was simply second to none*

*Projects keep coming and this gives the members much pleasure
To be hard at work repairing, sanding and painting is a treasure
Enjoying a coffee and a scone all adds to the well being
Of the members whose project work is certainly worth the seeing*

Boort Standard, July 1893

Wednesday afternoon was quite an arbor day in Boort. It was found that the trees supplied for planting in the low lying, swampy ground at the botanical reserve, and it was thereupon decided by the councillors of the riding to plant them on the reserve known as "The Hill," behind the State School.

Consequently, under the supervision of Mr Keast, a number of residents turned out, and commenced digging the holes with great vigor and in thoroughly horticultural style, preparatory to the planting process.

To look at some of the gentlemen at this unaccustomed work, with arms and clothing fluttering in the breeze, and the prosaic pick and shovel being busily plied, the casual observer would come to the conclusion that they were graduating for employment on the new line of railway, but it is very gratifying to know that the work has been commenced and it is to be hoped that the example set on Wednesday will be followed by others.

Messrs Andrews and Gannon have promised to give three watering each during the year, and probably several prizes will be given to State School children for the best kept trees.

Saturday 5th October Saturday Pennant

BOORT GOLF CLUB

Thirty-two players braved the weather for the Farmers 4Ball event held on Friday 28th June coming from various clubs in the area and the day sponsored by Rodwells with Russell Holman as their representative. The A-Grade winners were local members Jamie Sutton and Hamish Lanyon with 48 points, while the B grade was won by ex-member Grant Weaver and Neil Dexter from Barham with an incredible score of 50 points. All had a good day.

Karen Allison has organized that a Defibrillator be installed at the Club House and then organized a training session for members to learn how to use this equipment if it is necessary. There were 9 people at the very informative evening run by a St John member.

The Ladies Club championship was over 3 rounds of golf in June with the Lady Champion being Di Johnston and the B Grade Champion was Dot Beattie. These two ladies with their Caddies went on to represent Boort Club in the Kara Kara Championship Golf Association Ladies championships at Wycheproof on a cold and windy day. The winner of the Silver Division was Mandy Male of Donald and the Bronze Division was Rebecca Heenan, Charlton.

The Men's Championship competition, being the 3 best rounds out of 4 during in June ended with Andrew Kane being the Club Championship followed by Stuart Tweddle. The B Grade event David Hellsten took this honor with 3 very good rounds without needing a fourth round. This was fortunate as David was unable to play in the 4th round due to ill health. Nic Holland received the Weaver Cup with 3 very good net scores. Congratulations to these players.

An exciting round for Ewan Collins happened recently when he had the biggest story of the day, he holed out on the 15th Hole to win nearest the "Pin" and also to take home 28 golf balls from the Eagle's Nest, congratulations Ewan.

Boort Golf Tournament commenced with the Ladies 4 Ball day and was a great success with a number of ladies returning so much chatter could be heard in the Club House. A bus of 16 ladies came from the Murray Downs Club, Swan Hill making up a record number of players on the course. The Kara Kara ladies took out the Team event of any 2 pairs while the Ladies from Murray Downs took home the Freda Fawcett Silver Salver memorial Trophy, 2 pairs from the same Club. Thank you to all our helpers and a special thank you to all the Businesses that have assisted with Sponsorship over the Tournament, this is a great help to the Club.

Thanks to all the Club Members that have commenced travelling to play at other Clubs during their Special Days especially the Tournaments now with some members bringing home the occasional trophy or raffle prize. Well done Members, Margaret Nelson.

Loddon Healthy Minds

ART COMPETITION 2019

Help promote the importance of mental health in the Loddon community through art! This year, we're asking entrants to explore why mental health is important to everyone in our community, and what it means to you.

There are two categories:

- An Open section for entrants aged over 18; and
- A Junior section for entrants age between 14 and 18.

This year we have two themes:

- Mental health matters to us all
- Mental health begins with me

Entries close first Monday in August

UNITED MINDS
COMMUNITY SERVICES

United Minds is offering a fully bulk billed psychology service to people who live in remote and rural areas across Australia.

What type of support can someone get using the United Minds telehealth service?

The same service you would receive if they were visiting a physical office. We can offer you up to 10 bulk billed psychology sessions with a Psychologist. There are no requirements for a face to face session so all 10 sessions can be completed using our telehealth platform.

What is telehealth?

Telehealth is a secure platform that allows us to conduct videoconferencing sessions with people who reside in remote or rural areas.

Who is eligible?

You must live in a remote or rural area (Modified Monash Model areas 4, 5, 6 & 7). To check eligibility, visit www.doctorconnect.gov.au/ click 'search map' and type in the residential address in the search button and tick the box "Department of Health Custom Remoteness Classification – Modified Monash Model".

Do I need a referral?

Yes. You must have a valid Mental Health Care Plan from your GP to receive bulk billed sessions with United Minds.

Who will I see?

You will be booked in with a fully registered psychologist. Depending on support needs, this may be a clinical, counselling, educational and developmental or general psychologist.

To find out more or to make an appointment, please visit www.unitedminds.org.au/ telehealth or call 03 8692-9949

FUNDING ON OFFER TO SUPPORT RURAL COMMUNITIES

The program focuses specifically on helping build vibrant and sustainable rural communities with a population of 15,000 or fewer. This year the program is committed to three focus areas that include :

Improving environmental sustainability : initiatives that restore and conserve the natural environment or which contribute to lower carbon emissions, water stewardship and waste minimisation.

Improving financial wellbeing within the community : particularly for the under-represented and disadvantaged, including initiatives that improve economic participation, for example through building financial literacy and vocational skills and providing access to meaningful work.

Improving access to housing : improving housing access through initiatives that support those at risk of homelessness, or that provide supports for people living with a disability.

“The program is unique to rural communities and offers a great opportunity to increase the vibrancy and prosperity of country towns,” Mr Walsh said.

Applications are being accepted now and will close on Tuesday, 6th August 2019.

To apply visit <https://www.frrr.org.au/grants/ANZ-seeds-of-renewal> If you have any queries or wish to discuss your project call 1800 170 020 during business hours.

YOUNG FARMER SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

Leader of The Nationals and Member for Murray Plains Peter Walsh is encouraging young farmers to apply for a scholarship to help them build a productive and profitable career in agriculture.

Mr Walsh said the Upskill and Invest Young Farmer Scholarship program provided young farmers under the age of 35 with funding for training or study, professional development, business planning and other on-farm activities.

“Food and fibre production underpins the well-being of rural communities and is crucial in ensuring Victoria’s economy grows strongly and is competitive in the future,” Mr Walsh said.

Successful applicants can receive up to $10,000, with up to $5,000 towards study and a further $5,000 to invest on-farm or in professional development activities.

“I encourage all eligible young farmers across the Murray Plains electorate to consider applying for one of the 12 scholarships on offer this year.”

More information is available at <http://agriculture.vic.gov.au>. Applications close 9 August 2019.

NOMINATE NOW FOR RURAL WOMEN’S NETWORK

Apply for a place on the Victorian Rural Women’s Network to develop their leadership skills and advocate for country communities. The $500,000 program provides funded places on a range of leadership programs targeted at rural Victorian women connected to agriculture or the agriculture supply chain.

For more information and to apply visit extensionaus.com.au/VRWNetwork/leadership-andmentoring-program.

VOLUNTEER EMERGENCY SERVICE GRANTS AVAILABLE

Leader of The Nationals and Member for Murray Plains Peter Walsh is encouraging local emergency service organizations to apply for funding through the 2019-20 Volunteer Emergency Services Equipment Program (VESEP). Mr Walsh said the program was open to the Country Fire Authority and Victorian State Emergency Services. “Volunteer emergency services carry out a crucial role right across the Murray Plains electorate in the face of difficult and quite often extreme circumstances,” he said. “They do a brilliant job in protecting our communities and these grants will help ensure that when they are performing their roles, they have the equipment and facilities they need.” The grants can be used to purchase essential operational equipment, vehicles and appliances, and minor facility improvements. The VESEP will provide $2 for every $1 of funding contributed by the local volunteer group up to a maximum of $150,000.00 excluding GST.

For more information about how to apply for a grant through the program visit www.emv.vic.gov.au

MAYORAL COLUMN

Better recycling – lids

Thanks to the Loddon Mallee Waste and Resource Recovery Group (LMWRRG), this week I'd like to share some handy hints around better recycling. When it comes to plastic lids, if the lids are large, for example from a peanut butter jar, then they can go in the recycling on their own or attached. This also applies to metal lids on glass jars.

Smaller plastic lids that are on drink bottles should be screwed back onto the bottle, as unattached lids are too small for recycling machinery and cannot be processed. It is important to make sure that the bottle is empty and it helps to squeeze some of the air out of the bottle. This not only gives you more room in your kerbside recycling bin, but helps avoid compressed cubes of baled plastic breaking open due to air expansion.

Never place your recycling in plastic bags. The soft plastics take extra time to open on the sorting line, causing inefficiency. They can also jam the machinery, delaying the process and can cause damage.

Aluminium foil can be easily recycled. Just make sure it's clean (giving it a wipe down is fine), then ball it up and save it. Continue to add more foil to the ball, making it grow. When the aluminium foil is the size of a tennis ball it can go in your recycling bin.

Rigid plastic tubs that meat comes in are also mostly recyclable – just check the container for a number in the triangle. If it has a number 1 to 6 it can be recycled. Peel the soft film from the top (it's okay if a little bit is stuck to the rim) and put any absorbent pads in the waste bin. It's a good idea to rinse the meat trays to prevent odours and remove residual fluid.

Polystyrene is not recyclable through your kerbside bin, even if it has the triangle number symbol on it. As long as your polystyrene is clean, there are a small number of locations in the Loddon Mallee area where you can take it to be recycled. These can be found by downloading the Loddon Mallee Waste App via your app store and searching "Loddon Mallee".

Broken drinking glasses don't go in your recycling bin. This is because glasses melt at a different temperature to glass bottles and jars, contaminating the recycling stream. Wrap broken glasses up in paper and place in the waste bin. Window glass should also be treated this way.

Pet Exchange Register to improve sale transparency

Victorians can now find out where their pet comes from with the introduction of a new online database called the Pet Exchange Register (PER). Dogs and cats advertised for sale or give away now need a source number from the PER, which identifies an individual, breeder, business or shelter. Victorians getting a new pet will be encouraged to check the validity of a seller on the register before they bring their new dog, cat, puppy or kitten home. It will be an offence for an advertisement not to have a valid microchip number and a PER source number – this applies to advertisers selling or giving away dogs, cats, puppies and kittens, as well as publishers of the advertisements.
